ABOUT THE CONGRESS

The 9th International Congress of Food Technologists, Biotechnologists and Nutritionists will be held in October 03 to 05 in Zagreb, Croatia.

- Under the theme INTEGRATING NEW APPROACHES TO PRODUCE SAFE, NUTRITIOUS AND SUSTAINABLE FOOD the 2018 Congress will explore the latest achievements of national and international scientists and reveal innovative ideas in the field of food technology, biotechnology and nutrition
- Following the tradition established by previous events, this Congress will be a unique meeting place and offer many possibilities to share knowledge and ideas between researchers, professionals, policy makers and students
- An outstanding programme of plenary, oral and poster presentations will cover the most recent developments in the field
- New connections and collaboration between stakeholders on research and innovation in food technology, biotechnology and nutritionism will be created through meetings of scientists, government and entrepreneurship representatives and offer driving force for transferring knowledge into economic activity
